Harry M. Thomas
“Scout to Scouter Award”

Harry Thomas was one of the first Piedmont Scouts in 1910 and served continuously until his death in 1964. In 1950, he established an annual award to be presented each year to a young man in recognition of his services to Scouting and to encourage other young men who had completed Boy Scouting to return as an adult Scout Leader. The requirements specify that a recipient must be an Eagle Scout and have either continued or returned as an adult leader in the Piedmont Council and served for at least three years.
