Why Join Scouting?

Scouting has a 100 year tradition in Piedmont and is more relevant than ever today. It uniquely provides girls and boys from 5th - 12th grade with opportunities to have fun and explore the outdoors while learning life skills and reinforcing character values that last a lifetime. In an era of increasingly competitive activities and indoor pursuits, Scouting encourages kids to engage in their community and the world around them while having fun with their friends.

Piedmont Scouts BSA

The Piedmont Council supports six Troops, each with its own personality. Troops meet weekly during the school year and typically plan 6 - 8 weekend outings, including campouts, cycling trips, river rafting, or snow trips. Each summer, Troops schedule a week of Scout camp. Some also organize a backpacking trip.

Cost

Dues vary by Troop $100-$135 and cover activities and membership fees; Scout families are asked to make an additional annual contribution to Friends of Scouting (FOS) to keep our Council in Piedmont independent.

Meetings

Senior Patrol Leaders and older Scouts plan and lead weekly evening meetings that feature an instructional session on Scout skills or Merit Badges, planning for campouts, plus a game and/or patrol competition.

Who is in Charge?

Scout Troops are Scout-led using the Patrol Method under the careful guidance of trained adult leaders. Scoutmasters work with the youth leaders to achieve the goals of the group. Troops also have numerous trained adult Assistant Scoutmasters who work directly with the Scouts.

Parent/Guardian Involvement

All parents/guardians are encouraged to get involved—secure camp sites, teach a Merit Badge skill, drive on outings, or become a trained assistant Scoutmaster. All adults must complete Youth Protection Training.

What if I was never a Cub Scout?

No problem - girls and boys 5th grade or older can join any time!

Troop Open Houses

Girls, boys and parents are encouraged to attend each Troop Open House to discover their different personalities and characteristics in order to find the Troop that is right for you.
